

Dating Profile Activity

1. You will be assigned a significant historical hero to read about OR a lens category to research in order to find a modern day hero
 - a. First person will read (name in blue text) and second person will research in the corresponding category using links provided on the website.

STUDENTS	HERO / RESEARCH CATEGORY
Barney & Wukash	Anderson / Entertainment (Bigelow)
Baxter & Wong	Barton / Society (Hendley)
Benoit & Spellberg	Blackwell / Politics (Carter)
Budhi & Seiden	Bourke-White / Media (Obama)
Carrillo & Rubenstein	Cady Stanton / Politics (Tatchell)
De Kok & Robin	Carson / Environment
Deleon & Pinder	Copernicus / Science (Goodall)
Elesgarai & Pesantes	Curie / Technology (Jobs)
Fraser & Pena	da Vinci / Technology (Bezos)
Gardner & Osber	Gandhi / Society (Churchill)
Horne & Ochoa	Mead / Environment (Fossey)
Howard & Nieminen	Newton / Science (Guth)
Irwin & Nanan	Robinson / Environment (Mendes)
Jacob & Nadler	Tesla / Technology (Musk)
Katz & Mendez	Thoreau / Society (Menchu)
Layun & Lopez	Washington / Politics (Gates)

2. Create a biography poem for your person.
 - a. See separate document under project tab.
3. Record a Flipgrid dating profile video for your person. In your profile,
 - a. Try to sell your contribution/platform and establish a potential match for other influential people like you.
 - b. Make sure you are well prepared.
 - i. Reading your poem/monologue aloud from a paper, for example, may not help you “sell” yourself too well. That step was just a synthesis process.
 - ii. Practice within the Flipgrid 90 second time limit; be dramatic, clever, charming, engaging!
 1. See separate document for specific tips and guidelines under the project tab.
4. After viewing the classes’ dating profiles, you will write two short responses that explain the following:
 - a.) Who is your dream date? Which person/figure is the best match for your hero and why?
 - b.) Of all of the profiles viewed, which one was a revelation to you personally (not to your figure) Why?
5. Each of you will then take a quiz by matching each person to his/her achievement.