Name	Date
TVALLE	Date

Grammar: Simple and Compound Sentences

Α	SS	e	SS
$\overline{}$	J	\mathbf{C}	Ju

A Underline each independent clause in the following compound sentences. Then, circle the coordinating conjunction.

Example: Lions live in Africa, (but) most of them are in national parks.

- 1. My older sister drives, but my younger one has yet to learn.
- 2. Did you buy the cake today, or will you get it later?
- 3. I prefer roomy American cars, but my brother likes foreign models.
- 4. James must remember to bring the lantern, or we will have no light in the cabin.
- 5. She is interested in space exploration, so she reads every article and book on the subject.
- 6. I looked everywhere, but I couldn't find the keys.
- 7. The book is unusually interesting, and I will finish it tonight.
- 8. The night sky was clear, but we did not see a single shooting star.
- B Combine each pair of sentences into a compound sentence, using the coordinating conjunction indicated. Remember to use a comma before the conjunction.
- 1. Both the bus and the taxi had engine trouble. They arrived late. (and)
- 2. The ripcord that opens the chute must be strong. It could break. (or)
- 3. The sky was full of threatening dark clouds. It never rained. (yet)
- 4. Stephen studied long hours. He never did enjoy the subject. (but)